

Liverpool Marine Engineers' & Naval Architects' Guild

Rules for Beneficiary Payments

Taken from Rule 2 of 'The Rules of the Guild'

(As amended by The Charity Commission Circ. 9 May 2006)

2 Object

The object of this Guild shall be the granting of relief from the funds of the Guild and the income arising there from to necessitous and deserving persons connected with the professions of Marine Engineers and Naval Architects. The Committee shall in their sole discretion decide who are proper subjects for such relief, and their decision shall be final and binding. The persons who shall be subjects for such relief shall (but without prejudice to the power of the Committee to decide what persons are fit and proper subjects for relief whether actually covered or not by the description next hereafter mentioned) include the following:

- (i) Member of the Guild, their wives and families or the widows and/or families of deceased Members.
- (ii) Persons who have been engaged as Marine Engineer Officers in Liverpool and Merseyside area owned or managed vessels, their wives, widows and/or families.
- (iii) Persons who are or who have been Consulting Engineers or Naval Architects practising in Liverpool and Merseyside area, or their technical staffs, their wives, widows and families.
- (iv) Persons who have been engaged as Marine Engineers Officers – their wives, widows and/or families in any vessel owned or managed by any Member in the Port of Manchester or by a Firm or Company any Member or director of which shall be a Member.
- (v) Officers and employees of the Guild, their wives, widows and/or families.
- (vi) Members of the Guild who are not Marine Engineers or Naval Architects but work within The Maritime Industry and Associated Industries.
- (vii) Surplus income may be allocated annually for charitable purposes deemed suitable by these attending the A.G.M. with particular consideration being given to the assistance of youth in Marine related education or similar pursuits.